

Getting Started with BlueJ

Practice Quiz, 3 questions

1
point

1. Suppose you have written a Java program that has one class and one method.

Which one of the following best describes what you need to do in order to run the program?

- ☐ Compile the program, create a new object for the class, and call the method.
- ☐ Create a new object for the class, call the method, and then compile the program.
- ☒ Create a new object for the class, compile the program, and call the method.
- ☐ Compile the program, call the method, and then create a new object for the class.

1
point

2. Which one of the following best describes how one knows in BlueJ that a class has compiled successfully?

- ☒ The class icon removes the shaded diagonal lines to indicate compilation success.
- ☐ The program automatically runs to indicate compilation success.
- ☐ The class icon turns the color red to indicate compilation success.
- ☐ An object is automatically created to indicate compilation success.

1
point

3. Which one of the following best describes BlueJ?

- ☐ BlueJ is an object-oriented programming language.
- ☐ BlueJ is a word processor for editing code.
- ☐ BlueJ is software that organizes data files.
- ☒ BlueJ is a programming environment.

Submit Quiz

